

MAGISTRATES COURT OF QUEENSLAND

REGISTRY: BRISBANE
NUMBER: M6213/08

Appellant: Geraldine Fooi-Fong Robertson

First Respondent: The Chief Executive,
Department of Primary Industries and Fisheries

Second Respondent: The Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Queensland Inc

ORDER

Before: Magistrate Bradford-Morgan

Date: 30 July 2008

Initiating Document: Notice of Appeal lodged 19 May 2008

THE ORDER OF THE COURT IS THAT:

1. The Respondents file all the material for hearing by 4.00pm on the 4th of August. (Now I should make it clear that if there are any further applications, clearly that does not apply to a response to any further application that's to be lodged. I've noted that the RSPCA will strenuously contest any application to adjourn the hearing. I've noted that there's a verbal application to adjourn the hearing from Ms Robertson to get legal advice on the basis that she has not had enough time to prepare for the hearing and I've noted that the matter was set down for hearing on the 2nd July and advised Ms Robertson that she would be required to satisfy the Court that she'd made reasonable efforts over the last 1 month to obtain legal advice. The RSPCA has noted that an email was sent to the Chief Magistrate at 4.51pm on the 29th July noting that there were questions raised by the appellant about the constitutional validity or the issue of disability discrimination may raise jurisdictional issues.)
2. I direct that Ms Robertson lodge any further application with supporting affidavits by 12 noon on Friday, the 1st of August.
3. The application is adjourned to the 5th August, Court 35, at 9.00am.

Signed:

A. Jacobi
Deputy Registrar
